DIPSCOOP

August,2016 Volume. 7 Issue . 3

Dear parents,

We welcome to the next edition of our newsletter. The month of July was a witness to the younger generation being invested and the flurry of activities which is a part and parcel of the all rounded development of a child.

We bring you an overview.

THE LEADERS IN THE MAKING ...

A leader is the one who sees the way, makes the way and shows the way...

On a day marked for celebration in another corner of the world for the ascension of a nation that would in time be a superpower, the fourth of July saw the Investiture of Delhi Public School's student council. The star spangled banner and the DPS flag were flown full mast on opposite sides of the globe.

The programme was graced by the presence of its Chief Guest- Group Captain Dhanjay Vijay Singh KhotVM, Mrs. Rekha Aggarwala, Academic Director, Delhi Public School, Hyderabad, Secunderabad and Miyapur also graced the occasion along with the Principal DPS Hyderabad, Mrs.GeethaVishwanathan.

The deputy Student Council, consisting of the appointed tenth graders, was invested first by the Chief Guest, involving the unravelling of the badges signifying each member's post, following which the primary body student council consisting of the appointed twelfth graders was invested. The Chief Guest then administered an oath for the appointees- each declaring his or her resolve to fulfil their duties and live as model students.

We shall uphold our positions and carry forth our duties with devotion and loyalty…. The Torchbearers of the prefectorial board.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY OF PRE-PRIMARY WING

If Students are the torch bearers of tomorrow then let it start at the nascent stage itself. The Pre primary wing students were bestowed with the responsibility of leading their wing. The elected appointees were invested by Chief Guest of the ceremony -Mr. H S Prannoy, a renowned badminton player followed by the swearing-in ceremony, as the proud parents and teachers cheered on.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY : CLASS - IV

Class IV students got the chance for the post of Discipline Secretaries. Eight students were selected, one from each section of class IV. Principal, D.P.S, Hyderabad Mrs.Geetha.V pinned the badges and led them to the oath taking ceremony and enabled the leaders, realize their responsibilities.

The deserving young talents of the primary wing were bestowed with the responsibility and the students took the oath with a promise that they would carry out their duties with integrity, faith and excellence.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY : CLASS - VI

It was time now for Class VI… The newly appointed Discipline Secretaries took oath, received their badges and took over the responsibilities. Ms Geetha Vishwanathan, the Principal of the school did the honours of investing the young leaders. themselves.

INVESTITURE CEREMONY : CLASS - VIII

The discipline prefects from each house of Class VIII received their badges. After being invested as the newly elected leaders, they recited a pledge in which they swore to uphold their responsibilities and to set an example for their fellow students.

CELEBRATING RAMZAN

Ramzan a festival of multiple values of respect for diversity, compassion, sharing, brotherhood, etc. were brought out by the students of Class 1 and 2. Everyone applauded the hard work of the students for the show.

Vanamahotsava Celebrations by Class IV

Today's plantation, Tomorrow's life.

Vanamahotsavais the festival of life. The campus looked green with the students planting saplings. In this celebration GHMC also played a great role by providing the required number of saplings. An oath administered by the Principal put the students more in vigour wherein they pledged to spread the message

And this was just the beginning....

Je Sarai Poe'teEt Toi Poe'sie... French Day Celebrations

The students of class VI presented a delightful assembly as part of the French Day Celebration on 20th July 2016. It was an assembly where the audience was a witness to the ramp walk, lissome dance movements, mellifluous French songs and above all a brief introduction to the famous French personalities.

Various contests were held during the week as part of the celebration - Drawing contest for class V and Spell Bee for class VI students. The winners were awarded Certificates by the Principal.

The Young Electorate of Class VII

The students of class VII showcased their talent in all forms and left the audience spellbound through their array of performances, be it a song, skit, dance, nukkad natak, talk show or taking the audience to a world of politics through the whole procedure of electing a representative. The procedure of elections from nominations to campaigning followed by polling and result declaration was well executed. All the students of class VII participated with great enthusiasm. The icing on the cake was the power packed dance performance to express the happiness among the workers of the winning party.

Chirec MUN- Stellar performances by DPS Hyderabad

Model United Nations (MUN) provide an excellent opportunity to develop interpersonal and lobbying skills. DPS Hyderabad kept the school flag flying high with their stellar performances in their respective committees at CHIREC MUN held at Chirec School, Kondapur from 22nd July to 24th July.

Two delegations from DPS Hyderabad made an impact in the committees assigned to them and walked away with laurels. The school delegation also bagged the 'Runners up' position in the 'Best Delegation' category. The following students won individual awards:

Spectacular solos…

* Naman Gour of 12'A' claimed the 'Best Delegate Award' as Kim Tu Bong representing the Korean Cabinet in JCC.
* Ansh Jain of 11'C' won himself a 'High Commendation' as a delegate from U.K in the European Commission.
* Joe Matthew of 11'A' bagged an 'Honourable Mention' as a delegate of the U.S Cabinet in JCC.
* Shivangi Juneja of 12 'C' received a 'Special Mention' as the delegate from Brazil in the Bank of International Settlements.
* Dhruv Maroo of 12 'C', Neetesh Bappat of 12 'C', Anshuk of 10 'A' and Shavika Kapoor of 9 'E' received 'Verbal Mentions' in their respective committees.

The entire experience proved to be a great learning experience for the students and they definitely did make the most of it.

"Magnum Opus… the annual award ceremony

A REPORT

CLASS: I Spell Bee

It was a spell check for Grade 1 this month. The competition was a wonderful learning source not only for the participants but also to everyone. This competition also helped enriching the vocabulary bank of the students.

Class I A emerged victorious even though the other teams gave a good fight.

Class I H stood second and Class I G stood third.

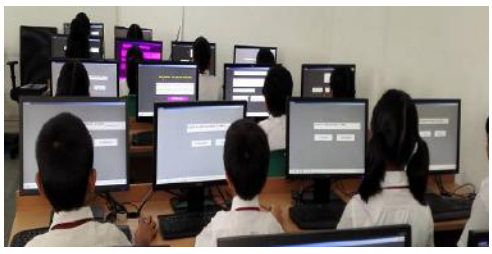
CLASS: II Click and Win



Involve the students…that 's the catch for the day. Young children decides for themselves whether they want to participate in contest; if they don't think its "cool," they will stay away. Being a Smart leader in new generation school like DPS Hyderabad involves the students when planning events and activities on their behalf.

As a result of this initiative students of class II participated in a 'Click and Win' contest on 14th July 2016. The entire section of Class II participated in this contest conducted by Topaz House.

The contest included literary skill, logical and analytical ability, and awareness of their surrounding and general awareness. The students indeed enjoyed the contest thoroughly and participated with new zeal.

Class: XI & XII Globe Trotter

The world is a book and if you don't travel, you've read only one page.' One travels not to escape life but for life not to escape them. To keep these spirits up among the students, an Inter House competition was organised 'Globe Trotter' where the participants showcased the essence of various countries through a presentation. The destinations selected were of great cultural, historical and geographical importance.

Topaz house secured the first position and Sapphire house was named as the Runners up.

Class: XI & XII Skit Competition

If all the world's a stage and we are mere players ....the skit presented by class xi and xii tried exploring the theme with their varied topics.. examination system, peer pressure,clean india and socials evils. They delved that man may be a player on the stage created for him but he too is responsible for its upkeep. The message was clear .. man makes it or breaks it..

Emerald House walked away with the Winning trophy while Sapphire House were adjudged the Second Best . Amala Vaidya and Dhairya Goel of Class XI D were adjudged the best performers.

STTI

In the STTI session conducted on 12th July, 2016, the guest speaker Ms. MathangiSwaminathan, who leads Waste Ventures India's Urban Waste Management vertical, elaborated on the project that WVI has been working on. With the help of a PPT presentation, Ms. Mathangi brought to light the several issues our country faces regarding wastes and its management.

There was another presentation made by STTI core member Ajay which highlighted some initiatives taken up to minimize water wastage in plumbing systems (flush tanks) as well as creating urinals which function effectively without the use of a flush system thus saving water. There was an open discussion about projects that the club members could take up themselves where ideas were thrown about. The idea that received maximum votes of participation was making a compost pit in the school premises using the wastes from the lunch halls.

DOUBLE DELIGHT

Telangana's Abhaya Vemuri and Karthik Neal Vaddepalli won both the under-12 singles and under-14 doubles titles at the Talent Series tennis tournament played in Hyderabad

DC CORRESPONDENT

Abhaya Vemuri and Karthik Neal Vaddepalli are on the top of the world. And why not? Both the players lifted two trophies each at the just-concluded Talent Series tennis tournament for boys and girls in the under-12 and under-14 age groups played at the Noor Tennis Academy at Rajendra Nagar in Hyderabad.

Both top seeds, Karthik and Apurva won the singles title in under-12 and claimed the doubles championship in under-14.

In the under-12 final, Karthik, the top seed, began brightly to take the first set 6-3 against eighth-seeded statemate Pragatesh Shivshankar. However, Pragatesh hit back to take the second 6-1 and Karthik, without missing a beat, captured the decider 6-1.

Apurva too had a tough match against Abhaya Vemuri, the second seed.

Apurva bagged the first set 6-2 but surrendered the second 5-7. She clinched the final set 6-4 to lift the trophy.

Apurva and Abhaya then teamed up to take down the top-seeded pair of Vederea Sahithya and Patlolla Charitha 9-7 in the girls doubles under-14 final.

Winners and runners-up in various categories pose with their trophies during the prize distribution ceremony of the Talent Series tennis tournament for under-12 and under-14 boys and girls played at the Noor Tennis Academy at Rajendra Nagar in Hyderabad.
