

CLASS III - INTER HOUSE COMPETITION – BEST OUT OF WASTE

“Waste isn't waste until we waste it.”

The students of Grade III participated in 'Best out of Waste' Competition held on 1st July, 22. The objective of the competition was to create awareness and love for the environment. Such activities not only follow environment friendly principles but also trigger creativity among students.

Students used their imagination and creativity to make innovative things. The outcome was Fabulous. They used materials like newspapers, coconut shells, bangles, CD etc. The kids created an amazing array of display items and useful everyday objects leaving everyone totally impressed. The values like preservation, recycling, conservation, reduce, reuse etc. were imbibed in the young heart and minds by demonstrating this noble act of caring for our environment.

All the things which are a waste in our day-to-day life were used in a constructive manner and a variety of things were made from them. Students organized their thoughts to create beautiful items. The competition focused on bringing an understanding among the children about preserving the environment by reusing and recycling waste material.

We were glad to see the enthusiastic parents who took out their valuable time and made a special bond with the children helping them display their creativity.

CLASS III INTER HOUSE ACTIVITY - 'CREATING A COMIC STRIP'

A comic strip is sequence of drawing often cartoons, arranged in interrelated panels to display brief humour or form a narrative, often serialised, with text in balloons and captions. Comic strips are mostly to entertain and are funny to read.

'Creating a Comic Strip' activity was conducted for the students of Grade 3 on 22nd June. It was an Inter-House Competition, where the participants had to create a Comic Strip. The students could choose between the topics 'My first Day at School' or 'April Fool's Day'. The students participated enthusiastically with their interesting thoughts and innovative tales. Each comic story they wove had humour and some moral value attached with a suitable title

The children were very clear with respect to the content. The expressions were very candid and appropriate for the topic that they had selected. To sum up, it was an enriching experience, where the students were involved and enjoyed the work of their peer group as well.
